Hello Pers Camden,

We have an update for you on how your complaint is progressing with us. We've tried to contact you to discuss in more detail, but we were unable to reach you. We didn't want to delay things, so we've gone ahead and offered a proposed resolution.

Here's what you told us

You requested access to CCTV footage following an incident that took place on 22 January 2026 at the O2 Store, 229 Tottenham Court Road, London, W1T 7QG, at approximately 12.30 pm. This request relates to an occasion during which you were asked to leave the store. You have explained that you would like to understand the reason for this and to confirm whether the individual involved was a member of O2 staff.

We understand how upsetting and concerning this experience must have been for you, particularly being asked to leave the O2 store without a clear explanation. We apologise for any distress this incident may have caused. We recognise how important it is for you to understand what happened and to establish whether the individual involved was a member of O2 staff. Please be assured that your concerns are being taken seriously, and we are committed to reviewing the matter thoroughly in order to provide you with clarity and an appropriate response.

Here's what we found

Thank you for getting in touch with us. We understand you had contacted us regarding requesting O2 CCTV footage. We're sorry for any frustration this has caused.

Firstly, we would like to thank you for bringing this to our attention. We take complaints very seriously and welcome feedback from our customers.

Here's what we propose

Just to make you aware, we recommend you to follow the below mentioned steps that may help in requesting O2 CCTV footage:

- Email or Write: Contact O2 at datarightsteam@o2.com or write to Telefónica UK Limited, Correspondence Department, PO BOX 694, Winchester, SO23 5AP. Include proof of identification.
- Provide Details: Include the date, time, and location of the incident, and state the purpose of your request.
- Use a Request Form: You can fill out a Data Rights Request form to expedite the process.
- Follow Up: If you do not receive a response within 30 days, you may need to file a Right to Information (RTI) application.
- Legal Considerations: Be aware that footage is typically held for 28 days before it is overwritten, so submit your request promptly.

For more detailed guidance, you can refer to the official O2 support page.

We trust this brings matters to a satisfactory conclusion. However, if you have any further queries or concerns regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact us directly on the below mentioned number.

If the issue has been resolved and a satisfactory resolution has been provided, please provide your consent to close this complaint by replying to this email. We appreciate your continued patience and understanding.

It goes without saying that we deeply value your relationship with us, and it is important you know that we're dedicated to providing you with the highest levels of service and want to maintain this at all times. If you need further help and support on any other topics related to any of your O2 services, head over to o2.co.uk/help.
