Hello Pers Camden,

We're sorry we haven't resolved your complaint yet – we understand how frustrating this might be. We're still working on it and want to make things right. Thanks for bearing with us – we'll be in touch as soon as we have any updates.

Most people resolve their issues through our resolution process. But as it's been over six weeks since you first raised your complaint, you have the right to ask the Communications Ombudsman to consider it. This is a free service that is completely independent from us, and you can get in touch via:

Name: CISAS

Website: www.cedr.com/consumer/cisas/overview

Phone: 020 7520 3814

Post: CISAS 100 St Paul's Churchyard London EC4M 8BU

You'll need to contact the Communications Ombudsman within 12 months of the date of this letter. Please make sure you mention that you've received this eight-week letter.

You can read our full Consumer Complaints Code of Practice here, or we can send you a copy in the post if you'd like.

Need more help?

We've got apps you can download to check your service status, manage your bills and lots more. You'll find them here.

Kind regards,

The O2 Complaints team
