You told me to send email instead on text.

What's a crime occurrence number?
How do I use it to learn about what's recorded with it.

Another a earlier message:

The Met has said that the BTP can handle the 9 Sep case, and I have conveyed that to the BTP. That's the result of the contacting the Met as the BTP told me to. Please stop repeating telling me to contact the Met again

I request the return of my property, as well as the CCTV footage of both cases.

The numbers I was given for the second theft on 29 Sep are:
41-290925
2500117834

Good Evening

From the below emails you have stated the incident happened outside Kings cross station. Therefore, the Met Police would be dealing with the incident. Please contact them on 101.

We have already repeated this many times.

I have said multiple times an officer said that the BTP is responsible for that area just outside the station.

You told me to contact the Met again and again and they said the BTP can handle the case last time which I already conveyed to you.

To begin with ,the problems either weren't really a thing or were created intentionally by you.

How much longer do you want to torment me?

I have not only reported the theft to the BTP, although BTP made it reported to the Met and thus prevented any legitimate progress, but also have sent in email form in the past about the incident which you requested again today.

I request BTP to clearly state the requirements so that this can be resolved efficiently.

But to be direct, this is a crime committed by the persecution group which you have shown you also belong to. It could have been resolved long ago if you chose to.

But you chose to drag to to torture and humiliate me again and again and again in the past weeks.

I ask again here to be given back my property, which is essential for me to not have to live homeless without a choice and suffer further crimes and health problems.

This is the same nonsense you have been repeating in the past weeks. And the same kind of nonsense you have been repeating while treating me as non-human in the past years.

With this nonsense you are going to continue torturing me?

I am writing this similar email because I am told to do so. I have already contacted thn Metropolitan Police and they said that the BTP can handle the case and I should ask the BTP again.

I don't quite know what else I can say to convince you to stop this and let me get my properties back.

Although this incident might look unique in some aspect, but deep down it's of the same nature of the mentality that twisted minds to do great harms to me over the years.

This incident has caused me to live homeless for more than 3 weeks which you know very clearly. But things like this have continued for more than 3 years, probably much longer, just that I didn't understand how horrible this world was. I don't think they caused good, unless being able to "baby, heheheh" is good enough for you.

I ask the police again to let me get my property back. I am sure you can put an end to this in no time if you want to.

As mention, the area was right outside the station. There's no good reasons the case was sent to the Met police.

You are intention creating a situation where you deny your involvement.

When will I have my properties back?

Afternoon,

As this has occurred outside the station this will be for the Metropolitan.

Our officers will assist and then transfer the reports to the Met which is what it sounds like has happened on this occasion.

The above is most definitely Met police reference numbers.

You need to contact the Metropolitan Police.

It has been two week already.

I want to get my properties back as soon as possible.

Below is an email I sent days ago.

(quote)

I see that this email address given to me for contact has "first_contact" on it.

I would like to elaborate that this is actually NOT the first contact. The incident (theft) happened in the evening of 9 Sep 2025 and was reported to the BTP office inside the King's Cross Station in the evening of 10 Sep 2025. It wasn't reported earlier because there was no one answering at the office.

Please note that for some reason it was sent to Metropolitan Police although I reported it to the BTP office in King's Cross Station. I hope the police forces will manage the coordination and let the appropriate force(s) handle the incident fairly and quickly. It has been a week already and I am in great trouble because of the loss of the backpack and all the things inside.

The previous reference numbers I was given include

SP-146449-25-0101-IR

01/7956733/25

The location is just outside King's Cross Station. I hoped to show the police and check the CCTV footage together, but unfortunately it didn't happen. It's on the side of King's Cross Square.

The appearance of the stolen backpack was black with added white strings and signs on it unless they were removed, which I incline to believe the BTP had a good idea since I had been approached a few times before even the incident.

Other important items in the backpack include but are not limited to a laptop and a wallet with a lot of cash and documents.

Lastly, I want to explicitly ask the police forces not to actively find or even create "reasons" to render me helpless again. I believe the police already know about the case much more than I do.

Please ask and be explicit if there is something you need to know more.

Neither of the above reference numbers are BTP reference numbers.

Where did this incident happen?
