You are using non-sense and silence to continue the years-long persecution. Days after days, months after months, a year after another you strip me of human identity. Insult and damage me at your whims.

Good evening,

As previously mentioned, a PCSO assisted you in reporting the incident to the Metropolitan Police . We understand you've asked to find out who the officer in charge of your case is. The Metropolitan Police has advised that you contact the All Crime Management Service on 020 7484 6700, or alternatively, visit your local police station with valid ID.

Please note that the British Transport Police is not handling this case and does not hold any of your belongings. For updates regarding your property or the investigation, we recommend continuing to liaise directly with MPS.

I demand the stop of the non-human treatment and the return of my property.

Please let me know who the officer in charge is and how the case is now.

As discussed before, it would not be reasonable to deny my access to the footage altogether. I would like to have a copy of the footage, with irrelevant people masked if you deem necessary.

More importantly, when will I be able to get my property back?

If the police forces decided to claim the case should be handled by the MPS, then the MPS will secure the CCTV footage, or have the responsible party, e.g. the BTP, secure the CCTV footage.

I urge the MPS and the BTP make sure to have the footage of the 9 Sep cases found and kept, no matter how you continue to torment me with your arbitrarily narratives.

I also urge the MPS to clarify the reasons behind all the constraints mentioned.

Last but not least, I know there are those who would think that if a human being they are exerting power to treat arbitrarily is still breathing then there is no problem.

It is not true. Put your family in my situation if you really think it's fine.

Dear Mr Chu,

Thank you for your continued correspondence regarding the incident reported on 29th September 2025 at King's Cross Railway Station.

Following a review of the case, I can confirm that the theft of your backpack appears to have occurred outside the station, within the jurisdiction of the Metropolitan Police Service (MPS). You were previously provided with the MPS crime reference number 01/7956733/25, and First Contact Centre noted that the online report reference SP-146449-25-0101-IR could not be located in our system.

A PCSO assisted you in reporting the incident to MPS, and as the British Transport Police (BTP) does not hold any of your belongings, we have advised that you continue to liaise directly with MPS for updates regarding your property.

In relation to the separate incident that you reported on 29th September involving an attempted theft between King's Cross Railway Station and Great Northern Hotel, we are in the process of requesting and reviewing CCTV footage from the area to identify any relevant activity / suspects.

I understand the distress this situation has caused you and appreciate the impact it has had. Please be assured that we are taking your concerns seriously and will continue to assist where appropriate.

Kind regards,

Sebastian Ziolkowski
